Mr. serjeant Glynn read this letter also before it was sent, and approved of it. DISMISSION OF EARL TEMPLE. The same persons who had procured the removal of Mr. Wilkes from the command of the Bucks militia, in a few days afterwards advised his majesty to displace earl Temple as lord-lieutenant of that county. This mark of impotent malice met with the merited contempt of the public in general; and his amiable countess, on the occasion, presented him with the following lines: To honour virtue in the lord of Stowe, The pow r of courtiers can no further go; Forbid him court,...
