Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 334 pages. David Goodman, student, game designer, and geek, wakes from his recurring dream of dying in 1917 Russia. The high point of the dream is a blond hottie who shoots light bolts from her hands. He decides she will be the star of his next game design. Then on the first day of school, junior year, she walks into his life. Beautiful and blond, preferring his nerdy, super intelligent friends to the in-crowd she is the girl of his dreams. Mysterious and alluring, with secrets all around her and a past she must keep hidden. Romantically drawn to David, she falls in with his crowd and vows to protect her new friends from the dangers involved. Even her unusual superhero abilities may not be enough as she and her friends become immersed in her secret world. Her antagonists want her to join them or to clone her, and many of her own kind want her dead. But she is strong, determined. . . She is Sophia. This item ships from multiple locations.
