We are assembled to-day, my hearers, at the call of the Chief Magistrate of our State. This day witnesses a sublime spectacle in the history of our country. It is interesting and encouraging to behold, in our Chief Magistrates, a disposition publicly to recognise the overruling Providence of God. Whether they are called to this by custom or example, or by a conscious sense of duty and obligation, it is, of itself an occasion for gratitude. The duty of public thanksgiving, for national blessings, is recognised in the Bible, and is consonant with the purest feelings of Christian patriotism. It became an annual custom with our Puritan fathers. It has prevailed, with more or less uniformity, down to the present time. It is also an interesting coincidence, that this day has been set apart, and will be observed by so many of the States of this Union. May we not suppose, if there be patriotic joy in heaven, that the Sainted Spirits, who watched over our institutions in their early formation, are filled with extatic delight at this days spectacle? They behold not a single State, but as it were, a nation gathered from their worldly business and cares to present the offerings of praise and thanksgiving to God. In these humble services are furnished the pledges of fealty and fidelity to the trust committed to their hands.
