Biberach, having a summer-house which commanded a fine rural prospect. Here, adds he, I pass my afternoons with no other society than the Muses; and, when I rise for some minutes from my task, I snuff the odor of new-mown hay, or see the boys bathe, or watch the retters of flax. At a distance, I catch the churchyard in which the bones of my fathers and probably my own will one day repose together; or, in the rich confusion of the remoter landscape, I single out the new white castle of Horn, then sit down again, --and rime. In 1769, Wieland, who had then two daughters, received from the elector of Mayntz an invitation to become Principal, or first professor of law, at the University of Erfurt, with a salary of six hundred dollars, and the title of privy-counsellor. This offer was transmitted by Baron...
