John Wiley & Sons Inc. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Leading without Power: Finding Hope in Serving Community (New edition), Max De Pree, Simple yet profound, Max De Pree's observations are often quoted by America's top CEOs, educators, and opinion makers. The best selling author of "Leadership Is an Art" and "Leadership Jazz", he has done no less than revolutionize leadership thinking and practice. Now, in "Leading Without Power", De Pree finds that the most successful organizations of the Information Age operate not as controlled collections of human resources, but as dynamic communities of free people. And in order to mobilize these communities, leaders must know how to lead without power, because free people follow willingly or not at all. "This is a book to be read, reread, shared widely within any organization. Every chapter has pictures for our mind that will remain vivid long after the book is closed. A vibrant testament to human potential, the why of work." - Frances Hesselbein, president and CEO, Leader to Leader Institute formerly the Drucker Foundation. De Pree holds up nonprofits as mirrors of our greatest aspirations places where people work for the opportunity to contribute to the common good, and for the chance to realize their full human potential. He calls such organizations movements and challenges others to follow their example. Movements, De Pree maintains, transcend - the deceptive simplicity of a single bottom line - and set standards for leadership and service all organizations should reach for. They lead not with the power of the paycheck or with bureaucratic carrots and sticks, but with the promise of meaningful work and lives fulfilled. For that reason, nonprofit or otherwise, they are the most successful organizations of all. Brimming with rich, warm, and wise advice, "Leading Without Power" takes an...
