Confining yourself rigidly to Fact, the question of Fact yo- state to yourself is: Does Mr. Bounderby ask me to marry hhn 1 Yes, he does. The sole remaining question then is: Shall I marry him? I think nothing can be plainer than that. Shall I marry hhn I repeated Louisa, with great deliberation. Precisely. And it is satisfactory to me, as your father, my dear Louisa, to know that you do not come to the consideration of that question with the previous habits of mind, and habits of life, that belong to many young women. No, father, she returned, I do not. I now leave you to judge for yourself, said Mr. Gradgrind. I have stated...
